

Rev March 10, 2026

	Bench #	Bench Name	Description	Geo Location	Elevation (ft)	info
No Back	1	The White House Ruin Bench	Located at the ruin of the White House, the site of a store at first, serving miners and others, and later the home of the Morales family. It offers a view south to the chaparral hillside.	31 44 24 N 110 53 7 W 31.74 -110.885278	4480	Info 1
No Back	2	The Mortero Bench	This bench is located where Indigenous Ancestors prepared their Mesquite Flour.	31 44 21 N 110 53 7 W 31.739164 -110.885278	4470	Info 2
No Back	3	The Parent Bench	Overlooking a Creekside play area for kids. It is situated around boulders.	31 44 21 N 110 53 7 W 31.739167 -110.885277	4480	Info 3
Pend Back	4	Creekside Boulders (N.E.)	Facing N.E. with a Bee Board for the benefit of the Carpenter Bees that call the area home.	31 44 21 N 110 53 6 W 31.739167 -110.885	4480
Back	5	Creekside Boulders (S.W.)	Facing S.W. and boulders in the Creek. This location also includes a Bee Board.	31 44 21 N 110 53 6 W	4480	Info 5

				31.739167 -110.885
Sold Back	6	The Meadow Bench	Named by Fred and Marion Schmidt in recognition of the Friends of Madera Canyon. It offers a view across the meadow to Mt. Wrightson, where Carpenter Bees can be heard inside the wood.	31 44 16 N 110 53 5 W 31.737778 -110.884722	4490
No Back	7	Below the Bridge	Located north of the CCC Bridge, creekside.	31 44 9 N 110 53 1 W 31.735833 -110.883611	4580	Info 7
Sold No Back	8	The Birder's Bench	Overlooking several tree species in the Creek, above the CCC stairs. This is a prime spot for birding.	31. 44. 8N. 110. 53 1W 31.735556 -110.883611	4590
No Back	9	The Oaks Bench	Facing the Wrightson View Bench and overlooking oaks around the creek.	31. 44 6N. 110. 53. 1W 31.735 -110.883611	4610	Info 9
No Back	10	The Wrightson Bench	Facing the Oaks Bench with Mt. Wrightson rising above the land.	31. 44 6N. 110. 53. 1W 31.735 -110.883611	4610	Info 10

Back	11	The Meditation Bench	Located at the end of the second Whitehouse Spur, overlooking the creek and chaparral hillside. It is intended to invite solitude.	31 44 2N 110 52 60 W 31.733889 -110.883306	4640	Info 11
Back	12	The Chaparral Hillside Bench	Facing the chaparral hillside on the SW side of the creek.	31 44 3N 110 52 59W 31.734167 -110.883306	4630	Info 12
No Back	13	The Memorial Bench	Provides an unobstructed view above the creek to the hillsides to the southwest. It is located by a memorial plaque.	31 44 0 N 110 52 60W 31.733333 -110.883306	4650	Info 13
Sold No Back	14	Forest Glen Bench	Situated in a glade, close to the creek with a clear view downstream.	31 43 57 N 110 52 56 W 31.7325 -110.882222	4680
No Back	15	The Boulder Bench	Next to the largest boulder trailside between Whitehouse and Madera Picnic area.	31 43 54 N 110 52 55 W 31.731667 -110.881944	4710	Info 15
Back	16	Madera Bridge	Located above a bridge across the creek, looking down the creekbed.	31 43 48 N 110 52	4760	Info 16

		Bench		52 W 31.73 -110.881111
No Back	17	Unknown Settler Bench	Located by the gravesite of an unknown settler on a spur off the east Whitehouse Loop.	31 44 5 N 110 52 57 W 31.734722 -110.8825	4630	Info 17
Sold Back	18	The Raptor Bench	Named by Fred and Marion Schmidt, facing NW into the Valley by the Raptor Information sign. It features a view with many scenic levels, including Baboquivori.	31 44 8 N 110 52 60 W 31.735556 -110.883306	4600
Pending	19	The Gibbeson Bench (Proctor Bridge Bench)	Named by Carolyn Fowler for Louise Gibbeson, who was a luminary in the early history of the Friends of Madera Canyon.	31 44 14 N 110 53 2 W 31.737222 -110.883889	4550
Sold No Back	20	The Mike Martin Bench	Also known as the Creekside Bench, named by Betsy Martin and family in memory of Mike Martin. It is located southwest of the Proctor Bridge in a special place for the couple.	31 44 14 N 110 53 2 W 31.737221 -110.883889	4540
Back	21	Birds in the Meadow	Offers a view of grasslands looking west on the East Proctor Loop.	31 44 18 N 110 53 3 W 31.738333	4510	Info 21

				-110.884167
No Back	22	Hummingbird Bench	Situated on the east Proctor Loop among plants that attract numerous hummingbirds when in bloom.	31 44 20 N, 110 53 3 W 31.738889 -110.884167	4510	Info 22